Whagons is a tool that became essential for our current operations, since it helps to control the workflow and ensure compliance in time and requirements of the work assigned by our customers.

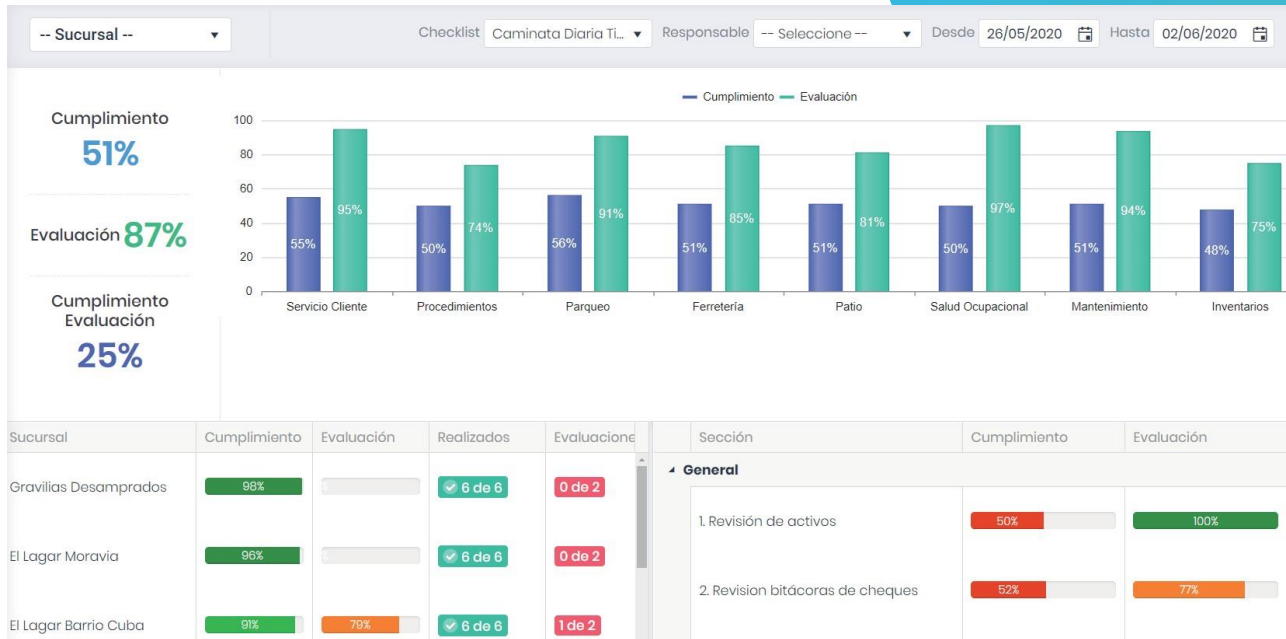

In Refritec we highly value the availability of the staff, the customer service and especially the time resolution to our needs. In addition to this, they give high priority to the improvement projects that we request.

In Refritec we are 100% satisfied with Whagons for the lived experienced and the improvements obtained with the tool implementation.
